SHOPPING • CINEMAS

Newmarket's Premium Shopping Destination
163 Broadway, Newmarket.

Highwic

Highwic was built in the early 1860s by Alfred Buckland, a well-known 19th century businessman and stock and station agent. The design of the house, in the English Gothic Style, was taken from an American pattern book. Owned by the NZ Historic Places Trust, Highwic is open to the public.

Westfield 277 Newmarket

If you love fashion, consider Westfield 277 Newmarket your soul mate. With sought after brands such as Marc's, Polo Ralph Lauren, Hugo Boss, Peter Alexander and Oraton, you'll find it's the epitome of all things stylish. Without doubt Westfield 277 Newmarket is New Zealand's premier shopping centre.

Smith & Caughey's

Showcasing leading designer brands for both men & women, the world's most desirable, inspirational and innovative makeup, skincare and fragrance brands along with dazzling accessories. Auckland's leading department store provides an indulgent and exceptional retail experience.

Rialto

At Rialto discover the latest fashion trends, quality homewares and gifts. For the freshest and tastiest fare enjoy a meal in the international food court or delicious wood-fired pizzas in the bar, café restaurant or take time to enjoy the ultimate cinema experience in the ultra-modern Rialto Cinemas.

The Carlton Hotel

The Carlton Club Hotel built in the 1880s is the last of several notable 19th century hotels to survive in Newmarket and is a major landmark which still has its ornamental balustrade-style parapet and decorative pediments above its doors and windows.

Lumsden Green

Stretch out and enjoy a break at the Lumsden Green named after David Lumsden, the Mayor of Newmarket at the time the borough was amalgamated with Auckland City in 1989. The giant aluminium sculpture by Auckland artist Marte Szimay was placed on the Green in 1969.

Teed Street

The best show off Broadway, Teed Street is home to NZ's top designers Zambesi, Kate Sylvester, Annah Stretton, Angela Lewis, Andrea Moore, Masochi Refinery, Taylor, Storm and Ruby. Also on the street are international designer Calvin Klein and Muse a great boutique stocking exclusive brands. Teed Street is a must-do destination for all for visitors.

Nuffield Street

If sought after and high-end is what you're looking for then Nuffield Street is the street for you. Clabber-trailing shoppers will recognise both international and iconic Kiwi brands. Nuffield Street also offers a number of food outlets to provide much needed retail therapy sustenance.

Olympic Pool

The Olympic Pool was completed in 1939. In recent years a cinema complex has been built above the pool but the original Art Deco entrance on Broadway still remains. This facility has a 50 metre indoor pool - ideal for lap swimming - a learner's pool, sauna, spa and steam room and is open 7 days a week.

Auckland Museum & Domain

The Domain was created in 1840 and was Auckland's first park. It contains many features including the landmark building The Auckland War Memorial Museum, the Wintergarden and fernery, several statues, many species of trees, walkways and duck ponds.
